

Bibliography of Works by Alexander Kazhdan

SIMON FRANKLIN

The aim of this bibliography is to provide a complete checklist of the published works of Alexander Kazhdan. The basic arrangement is chronological, with items listed according to their year of publication. Within the entry for each year the order is: (1) books; (2) articles; (3) contributions to encyclopedias, dictionaries, etc.; (4) translations by A.K.; (5) reviews; (6) translations of A.K.'s works. Within each category the order is: (1) sole publications; (2) joint publications. Within each subcategory the arrangement of items is by alphabetical order of title or (in the case of reviews) author.

Few libraries hold more than a fraction of the publications in which Kazhdan's works have appeared, and it has not been possible to check every entry. The compiler has relied heavily on information provided by others, above all by Musja Kazhdan from Alexander Kazhdan's own files.

Despite this invaluable assistance, the bibliography does not quite achieve its aim. In particular, it has not been possible to list Alexander Kazhdan's unattributed contributions to the second edition of the Bol'shaja sovetskaja enciklopedija, and insufficient details are available on one or two translations of his early articles into East European languages. Nevertheless, we hope readers will agree that the bibliography does not suffer from excessive brevity.
